

news
release HCC District III Advisory Council Calls Community Meeting

Preview of New HCC Learning Hub Building

HOUSTON, TX (July 21, 2009) – A special public meeting for residents of Houston’s East End is being called by the Houston Community College District III Community Advisory Council to present plans for the new Learning Hub building at HCC Southeast Campus. The meeting is scheduled for 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 27 at Houston Community College Southeast in the Angela Morales Building Lecture Hall, located at 6815 Rustic, Houston, Texas 77087.

During the meeting HCC Southeast will introduce its plans to create a Wall of Unity, Strength and Contribution in the building that will serve as a visual account of the East End’s culturally rich history. The community’s opinions on the diverse cultural and social applications of the building will be welcome. The Southeast College Learning Hub is scheduled to open in fall 2009.

For details or to R.S.V.P, email stonesource@sbcglobal.net or call 713.532.1805.

About HCC

HCC is an open-admission, public institution of higher learning whose relevance to Houston and the surrounding areas is reflected in its status as the No. 1 community college in the country for international students. The learning opportunities offered by HCC prepare individuals in our diverse communities with the essential tools for success in an increasingly international and technological society.