About NCCHC

Established in 1985 as an affiliate of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC), the council is the nation's premier organization for preparation and support of Hispanic leaders in America's community colleges. The non-profit, professional organization is committed to delivering high quality leadership development experiences and providing Hispanics with opportunities to continue their personal and professional growth. The Council provides members with resources, networking and educational opportunities.

NCCHC Values

- Leadership
- Education
- Equity
- Collaboration

Mid-Management Leadership Fellows Program

To address the lack of Hispanic Leaders in American community colleges, the NCCHC is offering the Leadership Fellows Program to develop a pool of highly qualified Hispanics and assist them in attaining high-level positions in community colleges. The program is designed for community college educators whose career interest focuses on becoming an executive leader of a community college.
