									was using the complainant's social security number. I found the student to be a Hispanic female name. I check the school records of this female. I found she did attempt to register for school since 2009 but has not completed the process. I made contact with the female at approximately 1550. She agreed to come up to the campus with her social security card and ID. Upon further investigation it was found that the female social security number was the exact same number as the complainant except hers ended with a 1 and the complainants a 4. It was determined that some must have misread or type the numbers in wrong during the female enrollment process.
