

Link to the State of Texas Expenditure Database

As outlined in CDA (Legal), Accounting – Financial Reports and Statements, and CRA (Legal), Technology Resources – Website Postings, a state agency, including a college district, that maintains a generally accessible Internet site or for which a generally accessible Internet site is maintained, shall include a link on the agency’s Internet site to the State Expenditure Database. [Gov’t Code 2054.126].

The State Expenditure Database can be found on the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts Transparency Page at the following Link:

<https://comptroller.texas.gov/transparency/>

On this page, you will find a wealth of information as follows:

State Revenue

- Monthly Revenue Watch
- Visualizations
- Classic Tools
- Additional Revenue Resources

State Spending

- Visualizations
- Classic Tools
- Additional Spending Resources

Budget and Finance

- Budget Process Primer
- Budget Lookup Tools
- Financial Reports and Forecasts
- Texas Investments

Local Governments

- Tax Allocation Comparison Summaries
- Transparency Stars
- Debt at a Glance Profiles
- Local Government Debt Reporting
- Hotel Occupancy Tax Reporting
- SPD Financial and Tax Reporting
- Eminent Domain
- Reports and Tools

Open Data Tools and Information

- Data Visualizations and Dashboards
- Local Bond Elections
- Pension Search Tool
- Reports
- Search Datasets

While there is not a specific subheading titled, State Expenditure Database, the information can mostly be found under the State Spending and the Open Data Tools and Information sections; however, the other sections have very useful information as well.

Note: Information updated as of February 24, 2019.